MOVED: Phil Hunt SECONDED: Sue MacIntyre CARRIED

7. Report on Endowment Fund

Ron Drake presented a verbal report on the Endowment Fund for information. With five years having now passed since the initial donation of TD stock and the establishment of the TD Fund, and with the consent of this donor, these investments have now been moved into the Main Fund, thus reducing the number of our funds from three to two.

For the year July 1st, 2024 to June 30th 2025, performance of the two funds has been as follows:

Main Fund (incorporating the former TD fund)

Established in December 2018 Year-to-date return = .88 percent Return since inception = 3.86 percent Market value on June 30th, 2025 = $192,253

Music Scholars Fund

Established December 2016 Year-to-date return = 2.37 percent Return since inception = 7.25 percent Market value on June 30th, 2025 = $41,837

It is noted that the Main Endowment Fund has never been used, despite all the capital improvements that we have done in recent years (dock resurfacing, new siding on church, new siding on cottage, Memorial Garden). Small amounts are withdrawn from the Music Endowment Fund annually to pay stipends to Music Scholars.

The two reports from our investment advisor are in .pdf format and are posted on the St. Peter's website under the tab, 'Endowment Fund'.

8. Property Report (embedded in Senior Warden's Report, see page 11)

In the absence of a volunteer in this role, Senior Warden Rachel Corbett took charge of both Property and the Clergy Cottage once again this year. Property and Cottage matters are addressed in her report under Item 5 of the Agenda.

Gratitude was expressed to Carol and Bill Corner, Nathan and Jack Chambers, and Kilbourn Tree and Cottage Services for their extraordinary help in cleaning up our island (and replacing a broken electrical mast) following the late March ice storm.

9. Director of Music Report (see page 18)

Helen Batten's written report is provided for information.

10. Music Scholars Report (see page 19)

Bern Kelly's written report is provided for information.

This year, the Walter family has provided an additional donation of $1,500 to the Music Scholars Fund. Two videos were developed by Bern to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the fund. As well, stipends were adjusted upward - $150 for a student in elementary school (grades K to 8), $300 for a student in high school (grades 9 to 12) and $500 for students in post-secondary studies.

Bern and his committee were congratulated for the great work they have done to celebrate the 10th anniversary.

11. Program Reports

Jackie Hubbs reported that attendance at Sunday School has declined from last year. She would very much appreciate some assistance in this role.

Katharine Dalton reported on two baptisms carried out in July, one of which was a private baptism involving only family members.

Carol Corner reported that there were three weddings over the summer, which is about average for any given summer. Carol and the Wardens agreed to a change in the wedding fee/donation to be paid to St. Peter's. Historically that fee has been $500 for a cottager/member of the parish, and $1,000 for a non-cottager/non-member of the parish. There are very few families in the latter category who are prepared to assume the logistical challenges of an island wedding, it was felt that a single fee/donation was appropriate. For 2026, the single fee/donation will be $750, and online forms will be revised to reflect this change.

12. Flowers and Memorial Garden Report (see page 20)

Martha Hunt's written report is provided for information.

13. Nominations to Select Vestry for 2026

There is presently no candidate for Junior Warden. The Recording Secretary portfolio also remains vacant, as well as some other minor roles.

For the last two summers we have used a prominent sign-up sheet in the church to solicit people to read and to provide altar flowers, and this has worked well, so there is likely no need to install volunteers into these two roles going forward.

In addition, the Sextons have been assisting with docking and coffee hour, and at each service two volunteers are solicited to do collections, so these are also minor roles that may not need dedicated volunteers.

Motion: 'That Rachel Corbett be appointed as Property Director for 2026. This portfolio will also include responsibility for care of Clergy Cottage'.

MOVED: Pat Bunting SECONDED: Phil Hunt CARRIED

Over the coming months, the Wardens will continue their search for a Junior Warden and a Recording Secretary, which remain key roles for the successful operation of the parish.

14. Other Business

Those present at the meeting provided very strong support for inviting Rev. Bothwell back for the month of August 2026, in the event that the combination of Rev. Souter and Rev. Mackison is not workable.

6. Report on Endowment Fund

Mark Cooper and Ron Drake presented reports on our three Endowment Fund investments. For the year July 1st, 2023 to June 30th 2024, performance has been as follows:

- Main Fund UP 9.3 percent for the year
- TD Bank Fund DOWN 9.95 percent for the year
- Music Scholars Fund UP 9.3 percent for the year

Since inception, the funds have performed as follows:

Main Fund

Established in December 2018 Invested capital = $89,962 Return on investment = $26,291 Market value on June 30th, 2024 = $116,654

TD Fund

Established in August 2019 Invested capital = $49,480 Return on investment = $9,712 Market value on June 30th, 2024 = $59,173

Music Scholars Fund

Established December 2016 Invested capital = $24,264 Return on investment = $13,195 Market value on June 30th, 2024 = $37,459

The TD fund has been managed separately from the Main Fund at the request of the donor, with the agreement that this would be for a period of five years. With the consent of the donor, and the five years having now passed, these funds will be moved into the Main account.

Ron and Mark also advised that they will seek advice from our investment advisor to increase the percentage of American investments in the Main Fund to improve returns.

The three reports from our investment advisor are posted on the St. Peter's website.

Tony Whittingham reported on recent discussions with Bern Kelly about promoting the Music Scholars Program more widely, as we had only a single applicant this year.

11. Report on Cottage and Property

In the absence of volunteers to fill these two roles, Rachel Corbett (Junior Warden) reported on her work in these two areas. Her written report is appended to these minutes at page 20.

12. Nominations to Select Vestry for 2025

Numerous Select Vestry vacancies persist (Recording Secretary, Property, Altar Flowers, Clergy Cottage, and Docking) but we are pleased to report that Phil Hunt has agreed to take on the position of Treasurer, as Pat Bunting is retiring, and David Hubbs has agreed to take on the role of Junior Warden.

MOVED: Pat Bunting SECONDED: Carol Corner CARRIED

To approve the nominations of Phil and David. Those present offered thanks to both for stepping up to volunteer in these key roles! Over the coming months, the Wardens will continue their search for volunteers to fill remaining Select Vestry positions.

13. Other Business

There was no other business added to the Agenda. However, some additional comments were made about a variety of issues:

- One participant commented that the work done to resurface the small boat dock was excellent. Pat Bunting explained that despite the project being postponed for a full year, the contractor (Andrew McDermott) kept the same budget.
- Some participants expressed disappointment in the Wardens' earlier decision at the time of applying new siding on the Church, to discontinue the spotlight that illuminated the front of the church at night.
- Some participants stressed that the Sunday School room is actually a third bedroom and that we should promote the Clergy cottage as a three-bedroom cottage.
- In response to the proposal to switch over the two toilets in the cottage to footoperated, super low-volume toilets to economize on septic pump-out charges, it was urged that a thorough cost-benefit analysis be conducted first to ensure the change is warranted.
- In response to a question about the financial statements not reflecting property assets, the participants were reminded that the Diocese of Toronto owns the island, the Church, the cottage, the docks and all associated chattels.

Report from Senior Warden Rachel Corbett

St. Peter's Annual Vestry Meeting

July 27, 2025

Greetings from your Senior Warden. 2025 has been a very busy year for me, starting off with a bang when the Kawartha region experienced a massive ice storm on the last weekend of March. Experts say that the damage from this event exceeded the damage caused by the 2022 'Derecho' storm, because the ice storm was so widespread and so uniform in its impact.

St. Peter's fared pretty well in the Derecho storm, losing only one large pine tree that wrecked a portion of our concrete pathway. We did not escape harm this time around. Upon arriving shortly after ice-out in early April, we found the island to be an absolute mess. Let us give huge thanks to those who helped with clean-up - Bern and Janie Kelly, Carol and Bill Corner, and Aimee Kilbourn and team, who joined me. We especially wish to thank the Corners, who paid for the removal of high hanging branches beyond the reach of amateurs and wood chipping of all the remaining debris, and Nathan and Jack Chambers, who at no charge to us, replaced the damaged electrical mast that supplied electricity to the church. Combined, their generosity has spared us about $4,000 in expenses. Thank you!

Our attendance this year is slightly up! Our average attendance so far through four Sundays in July is 88 persons, whereas average attendance over the same period last summer was 75. Our two Treasurers (Pat Bunting the older and Phil Hunt the newer) will be reporting on how this may have impacted collection plate giving to date. Declining attendance is a concern across all mainstream churches, and as Wardens we are doing our best to maintain St. Peter's as a thriving, viable and sustainable worship program in this cottage community. We have a rich history, and while you cannot convince non-church goers to go to church, you can offer other enticements such as we are doing through abundant music, meditation Mondays, Sunday school, hosting weddings and just giving off an all-around good vibe by encouraging people to visit the island and enjoy our space. What many people don't realize is that visitors come every day to look around, and Kevin always welcomes them. I am on the island frequently attending to the physical property, and I have toured many visitors through our beautiful church already this season.

A highlight for us this year is the Music Scholars Program 10th anniversary. The coordinator of the program, Bern Kelly, has done a fantastic job recruiting former scholars to return to play for us. I wish to thank Bern for his efforts, as well as the members of his committee (Blair Mackenzie, Bob Trennum and Tony Whittingham) who have revamped the program with increased stipends and have promoted it more widely. Please refer to Bern's separate report. Let us also thank Helen Batten, our Director of Music, who facilitates the performances by these young people during our services and who also brings in other musicians to accompany her. It has been a rare Sunday that we have not had musical guests. To Helen and Bern, many thanks.

On the Clergy front, we say farewell to Rev. Kevin Bothwell who has served his three years as our July priest. He will be missed, but we think he will not be a stranger going forward. Kevin and his wife Toni (just recently retired) have developed a love for this community, and we hope to see them again, whether it is officiating at our Thanksgiving services, filling in as needed in summer services, or visiting us while they stay at the little island Plum Pudding.

We are pleased to report that the Bishop has appointed Megan Jull to replace Kevin in 2026. Megan is the Incumbent at St. Augustine of Canterbury and next year while here she will be on leave from that role, pursuing doctoral studies (We knew that getting Starlink internet was going to be a game-changer for clergy recruitment!). Megan was the Wardens' first choice, and we are pleased that the Bishop supported our pick.

The month of August going forward is still up in the air. Our regular August priest, Rev. Paige Souter, has left Church of the Redeemer for a new job as Chaplain at Trinity College, University of Toronto. This means that she will once again depart early next month, leaving the last two Sundays to be taken up by Rev. Steve Mackison, who is well-known to us. The impact of her new position on her residency next year is at this time unknown. Thus, August 2026 and beyond is not filled, but all will revealed in due course (we hope!). We have asked that Kevin be given an opportunity to return as well. Ultimately, however, such decisions rest with the Bishop.

A continuing challenge for us is a lack of leadership volunteers. We have no property director, no recording secretary, no caretaker of the clergy cottage, and some other minor roles also remain unfilled. In the absence of volunteers, our sextons have stepped up to do many small things. Most critically, we need to find a Junior Warden for 2026. There are folks in the pipeline who want to serve, but not just yet, due to other volunteer commitments on the lake. Please consider joining our friendly team either by volunteering for a role or helping us to find such volunteers. All it takes is asking the question! (That is how most of us landed here...). For more information on volunteer roles and responsibilities, you can consult our "St. Peter's the Peculiar: A Governance Guide" available digitally on our website and in paper form here in the church.

About Property

In the absence of a property director, I have been doing this necessary work for the last two summers. I think all will agree that the island and buildings are in good condition. This role requires ongoing and steady effort. This year, in addition to island cleanup from the ice storm, there has been a big focus on getting professional support for our irrigation system. It has suffered from neglect in recent years but has now been repaired and recalibrated, as summarized in Martha Hunt's report. Our Memorial Garden refurbishment three years ago represented a significant investment of money, and a properly running irrigation system that is professionally monitored will protect that investment.

The clergy cottage has had a little bit of work, notably a new kitchen faucet which was on its last legs and was about to explode. The idea of push-pedal, low-volume toilets which I suggested last year has been set aside, as the advice I got from professionals was that to work properly (without the aid of sewage pumps), the toilets had to be situated nearly on top of the holding tanks. This is not possible at the clergy cottage, so going forward our strategy is to encourage frugal use of running water and short showers in order to save on the cost of septic pump outs.

Next year, funds willing, I would like to install a new screen door as the current screen door is a bit like the kitchen faucet, on its last legs and about to come apart.

Later this summer I plan to reglaze the front windows by the main door of the church. They take a real beating in the sun and wind and are in serious need of help. I will also put on plywood covers for the winter which, oddly, has not been done before despite this very exposed location. I also have a long list of other small repairs and maintenance jobs to be done before the snow flies.

Our big boat dock had an adventure this spring. The consensus from me, Andrew McDermott (our contractor) and R and J Machine who were consulted, is that someone tried to steal one half of the dock. The steel dock is in two segments, each about 20 feet long, and the outer segment was detached and towed partly out into the nearby channel. Once there the theft was possibly abandoned (due to a few tons of anchors attached to the dock) or was interrupted somehow. Andrew successfully replaced the missing parts, restored the dock to its proper place and has run bolts through the large pins to deter their removal in future. At no cost to us he is going to install a security camera for the winter.

In closing I would like to thank all those who have supported me in this role so far this summer: Rev. Kevin Bothwell, music maker Helen Batten, our sextons Vanessa Hubbs and Molly Thompson, Sunday School leader Jackie Hubbs, other volunteers including Bern Kelly, Carol Corner, and Katharine Dalton, past and current treasurers Pat Bunting and Phil Hunt, and fellow Wardens David Hubbs and Andy Bouffard. We get the job done!

I would also like to thank Kate Bonnycastle of the Association of Stony Lake Cottagers (ASLC), who gives us generous coverage in the annual Islander magazine at no charge. This year, we got two full pages to promote Sunday Services, the Music Scholars Program, and Meditation Mondays. Thank you ASLC!

Music Report 2025 Annual Vestry Meeting

July 2025

- Our Phoenix digital pipe organ is in its 22nd year of service and is in excellent condition. Since the date of the installation was 2004, this year marks the 21st birthday of the organ. The only repair required this season is replacement of the bulb on the built-in music stand. It lasted 22 years through regular use, umpteen freeze-thaw cycles and power interruptions.
- Our Technics electronic piano is in its 14th year of service and is in excellent condition.

The St. Peter's Music Scholar's Programme is celebrating its 10th season, with exciting return visits from past participants, as well as new participants. Please review Bern Kelly's summary of this year's activity. Thank you to the Walter family for their generosity in making this programme possible.

Bob Trennum played the 10:30 baptism services in July, in Helen's absence. Thank you Bob!

Margaret Faye (bassoon) and Graham Mackenzie (oboe), both professional musicians, are playing a duet on July 20th at our 10:30 service. Thank you, Margaret and Graham!

Helen's long-time friend Alice Van Allen will be joining in the service on piano on July 27th. Thank you Alice!

This year for the third time a music theatre kids' camp is being held at St. Peter's, under the direction of Morgan Strickland and Tania Granata. The camp has been a great success with sold out registration, culminating in a performance of a musical at the end of a short week of rehearsals.

A heartfelt thank you to all musicians who have taken time to be at St. Peter's and share their gifts of music with all of us. It is tremendously appreciated!

Report on Memorial Garden and Flowers Annual Vestry Meeting 2025

The Memorial Garden is in its third year and is maturing nicely. It is grateful to Rachel Corbett and Trevor Nicholson who have completely repaired and adjusted the irrigation system so that it gets a heavy soaking twice a week! The system will be monitored and maintained on an ongoing basis by Trevor – this is an important investment in the future health of the garden.

For a second spring in a row, a Song Sparrow made her nest and raised her chicks in and amongst the Northern Blue Flag Iris.

Most of the plants in the Garden are doing well except for the Wintergreen along the front border of the garden that just never took. Too much sun? Soil not acidic enough? Hard to say, but they are struggling. To fill in the blank spaces, 80 Canadian Wild Ginger plants were planted at the beginning of July this year, and they are doing very well in their new home.

As well, the small Madonna sculpture given to us by artist Ralph Ingleton has found a lovely home in the garden at the north end. Visitors coming off the small boat dock will see the sculpture, and we have done special planting around the sculpture, and placed it on a small rustic pedestal. This artwork is put away in the clergy cottage each winter.

The nice new bench facing the Memorial Garden has been supplied by the Thompson family in memory of Michael Thomson. It is awaiting its commemorative plaque. It creates a beautiful sitting area to view the Garden, and we have observed people enjoying this spot.

We love to see all the pollinators visiting our native plants. Thank you as always to Helen Batten, our native plants consultant and source of ubiquitous goodwill discounts at local garden centres, and all those who helped start, maintain and enjoy our Memorial Garden.

I also plant the flower boxes each spring and along with the Sextons, we keep them watered and healthy through the summer season.
